

I Excel in Math and Science

Jaisen DeHaven, Grade 4
Laurel School

Jaisen DeHaven is a SOARING Yellow Jacket who loves math and science. He enjoys STEM projects and can't wait to learn chemistry. Jaisen reports that he may want to be a detective and plans to attend Miami University someday. Jaisen's hobbies include: building robots, model cars, catching lizards, and fishing. Jaisen also enjoys wrestling and doing challenging puzzles. Jaisen answered when asked what else you want people to know about you, "I love Laurel School." Congratulations to Jaisen on his efforts to Excel.
