

I Excel in Academics & Being Kind

Emma Jane Rosenberger, Grade 4
Mt Carmel School

Emma Jane is a 4th grader at Mt Carmel School. She is a wonderful member of Mrs. Stenger's classroom. Emma Jane says she excels in Academics and being kind to others.

She lives at home with her mom, dad, sister, and dog. Outside of school she enjoys drawing, gymnastics, and playing outside in her clubhouse. Emma Jane has 2 hamsters named Teeny and Tiny, 2 cats named Bella and Kitty, and a dog named Roxy.

At school, Emma Jane likes writing, math, and lunch. When she grows up she isn't completely sure what she wants to do, but she might want to be an architect or a stunt person. Emma Jane wants to attend Miami University and someday would like to visit California or Italy. She and her grandma are currently working on writing a children's book. Emma Jane has also started one of her own.

Emma Jane has a bright future ahead of her. She is sure to achieve many great things as she "reaches for the stars" of success.
